

Checklist for starting your studies at the School of Engineering and Design

Getting Organized and Enrollment

- Clarify entry requirements and apply for visa
- Mandatory health insurance
- Enroll at TUM
- Transfer the semester fee on time (tuition fees for students from non-EU countries)
- Keep track of important dates and deadlines
- Financing of your stay abroad
- Find accommodation (Tips for finding accommodation)

To Dos in Germany

- Register with the resident's registration office
- Get a residence permit
- Open a bank account
- Apply for an exemption from radio and television license fees
- Get a ticket for public transport

Prepare for your studies at TUM

- Get your TUM Student Card
- Familiarize yourself with TUMonline and register for courses (manuals can be found here)
- Join introductory events (information via email or on the website of your degree program)
- If interested: attend a library tour
- Activate eduroam (Wi-Fi access)
- If interested: register for the buddy program

Campus life & Community

- Get to know fellow students and network
- Enjoy leisure and cultural activities
- Improve your german language skills
- If interested: register for sport courses at Zentraler Hochschulsport \(ZHS\)

Do you have any questions? You can find FAQs here.

Information and contact persons for your degree program can be found on your degree program's website.